ABOUT ME

I'm Creative graphic, UI/UX Designer and photography from Yerevan, working freelance and for myself. I enjoy turning complex problems into simple, beautiful and intuitive designs.

My job is to build your website and branding so that it is functional and user-friendly but at the same time attractive. Moreover, I add a personal touch to your product and make sure that it is eye-catching and easy to use. My aim is to bring across your message and identity in the most creative way.
